Independence Day Saturday July 1

To get us ready for the Kick Off Meeting on April 6 at 7:30, here are some questions to tickle your mind:

1. What are the first 3 words of the U.S. Constitution?
2. The first 3 articles describe the 3 branches of the U.S. government: what are they?
3. Congress is divided into 2 sections: what are they?
4. How many senators from each state?
5. How long is one term for a House of Representatives member?

Answers on page 3.

HELP We need ideas for a club social with the Ravens Roost! How about Cinco de Mayo May 5th?

Did you know we have two wedding officiates in our midst?

Dave Ward and Mary Ann Hand! When interviewed, they said:

Dave

Why: friend’s minister (John Waters) backed out and I was asked so I got my credentials
 Unusual: wedding at Senator theater
 Large/small: 250/45
 Comments: 100% are still married!

Mary Ann

it’s an honor to unite 2 people in love—the best part of the wedding public park where only 15 could gather. They had 30 & park police asked what kind of car she had (station wagon) to put away the extra 15 chairs!
 bride, groom, dog & photographer
 No matter what happens (groom forgot marriage license) you will be married!

The Optimist Creed

Promise Yourself —

- To be so strong that nothing can disturb your peace of mind.
- To talk health, happiness and prosperity to every person you meet.
- To make all your friends feel that there is something in them.
- To look at the sunny side of everything and make your optimism come true.
- To think only of the best, to work only for the best and to expect only the best.
- To be just as enthusiastic about the success of others as you are about your own.
- To forget the mistakes of the past and press on to the greater achievements of the future.
- To wear a cheerful countenance at all times and give every living creature you meet a smile.
- To give so much time to the improvement of yourself that you have no time to criticize others.
- To be too large for worry, too noble for anger, too strong for fear, and too happy to permit the presence of trouble.

$20 for meetings and the meals & hotel are on your own.

A reason to be Optimistic: there are more museums in the U.S.

99th Optimist International Convention

July 6-8 Albuquerque, New Mexico Convention Center

Congratulations Tricia Lane-Foster, daughter of Dennis & Ann

The National Art Education Assoc has named Ridge Ruxton educator with a national award for excellence in teaching art to students with special needs! The award will be presented in New York March 2-4. Tricia works with students with intensive special needs from ages 5 to 21. She customizes materials and strategies for each student and focuses on student ability, participation, creativity, and success.

NAEA President Patricia Franklin says "Patricia Lane-Foster exemplifies the highly qualified art educators active in education today: leaders, teachers, students, scholars, and advocates who give their best to their students and the profession." Communications skills are integrated into every activity as she co-teaches with related service providers including speech language, occupational, physical, and vision therapists.

Lane-Foster uses art as a vehicle to bring together students with and without disabilities. For example, last fall, a Pinwheels for Peace project brought Grade 4 students from West Towson Elementary School into Ridge Ruxton for a number of activities. She also serves on the planning committee for the annual Baltimore County Public Schools Very Special Arts Festival, which unites all BCPS students in a daylong celebration of the arts.

Her principal Ed Bennett said, "She is an outstanding example of our school's motto: A Tradition of Caring."

Artwork by Lane-Foster's students will be on display in March at the Towson branch of the Baltimore County Public Library.

The Greater Jacksonville Optimists applaud her work and wish her continued success in her field. We are all so proud of her as she follows in her father's teaching footsteps.

Dennis Lane retired as a teacher from Parkville High School. The club has sponsored a sophomore student in his honor to attend the HOBY Leadership Seminar for the next five years.
